

Hunstanton Watersports cannot be responsible for the weather and has no control over day to day conditions. Hunstanton Watersports makes every effort possible to provide alternative activities and dates, subject to availability

Cancelled courses due to weather conditions are at the discretion of Hunstanton Watersports. If personal safety is at risk due to the weather we will cancel the sessions.

All cancelled courses will need to be re-scheduled, refunds are not available.

All assessments as to whether courses should start or continue is under the control of Hunstanton Watersports.

Incomplete courses due to weather conditions or by any other means will be rescheduled by Hunstanton Watersports subject to availability.

All invoices and course payments will be made at the time of booking, in advance of course commencement.

No bookings will be confirmed until full payment has been received.

Failure to attend any course without prior notice will result in the course being forfeited without refund.

We cannot hold or reserve place on a course for any longer than 24 hours. After that time your place will become available for bookings.

Dates and starting times specified are to be followed. We have to work around tide times, weather etc.

All gift vouchers are valid for a maximum of twelve months, once expired they become invalid.

If you are running late, please contact Hunstanton Watersports A.S.A.P.
Courses described as the duration of 'one day' are approx six hours.
